

Ray ruled out

Ray Charles' latest album, Ray Sings, Basie Swings, has been ruled ineligible for the upcoming Grammy Awards. The CD – which combines recently discovered 1970s vocals with new music – is deemed off limits for best jazz, R&B, historical or new categories

■ 1960-93: Wins 12 Grammy Awards, including two for Georgia On My Mind, plus best R&B recording for three consecutive years – Hit the Road Jack, I Can't Stop Loving You and Busted

■ Jun 10, 2004: Ray Charles dies at age of 73, ending a 58-year career

■ 2006: Late legend's final album, Genius Loves Company, is released – it wins eight Grammy Awards

■ Oct 5: Ray Sings, Basie Swings, debuts at top of Billboard Jazz charts