

Horn of Africa floods

International aid agencies have launched a massive relief operation to help 1.8 million people affected by heavy flooding in the Horn of Africa. The floods could be the worst in the region for 50 years

