

U.S. passport change

The Homeland Security Department will require virtually all air travellers entering the United States after January 23 to show passports – even U.S. citizens, who until now were allowed to use other IDs, such as drivers' licences

U.S. travellers using passports
September 2006

Source: Homeland Security © GRAPHIC NEWS