

New bridge to improve Haj safety

This year's Haj pilgrims will take advantage of the first phase of a $1.2bn project to ease overcrowding at Mecca's Jamarat Bridge – where stones are thrown at three pillars representing the devil. Hundreds have died there in recent years, including 360 people crushed to death in Jan 2006

