

Alaska's Iditarod sled dog race

The Iditarod race traces the route of a famous trail used by mushers during the gold rush era. Reborn in 1973 as an event to challenge the best dogsled teams, the trail has evolved into a highly competitive race that tests the very meaning of drive and determination

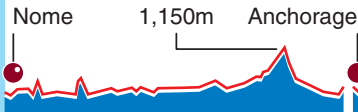

2006 WINNER Jeff King

Time: 9 days, 11h, 11m, 36s

RECORD (2002) Martin Buser

Time: 8 days, 22hs, 46m, 2s

ELEVATION PROFILE

Total length: 1,800km approx

