

New Subaru Impreza debuts in Mexico

The Subaru World Rally Team's new Impreza will make its competitive debut at Rally Mexico. The WRC2007 features a lighter, more responsive front end with better traction and more balanced tyre wear, particularly on longer stages, plus new dampers to improve road-holding

Impreza WRC2007

Chassis simplified to improve air flow

Bonnet vents: Additional twin side exits
Engine: Lighter all-aluminium construction. New radiator and intercooler

Driver's screen:

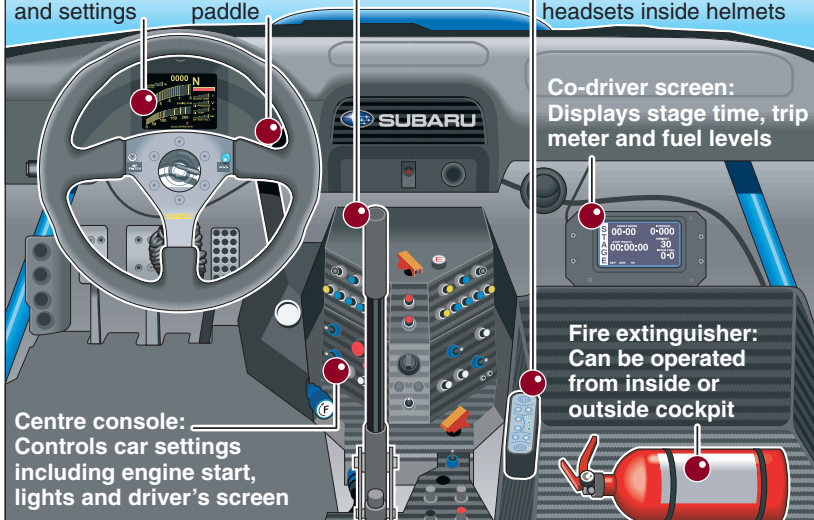

Shows car data and settings

Gear shift paddle

Handbrake

Intercom panel:

Controls settings of headsets inside helmets

Centre console:
Controls car settings including engine start, lights and driver's screen

Co-driver screen:
Displays stage time, trip meter and fuel levels

Fire extinguisher:
Can be operated from inside or outside cockpit