

Germany builds fortress for G8 summit

German security forces are preparing for their biggest ever assignment with the deployment of more than 17,000 police and a $17m steel and cement fence to keep away more than 100,000 protesters likely to travel to the Baltic Sea resort of Heiligendamm

Check-points

U.S. and German warships on patrol

BALTIC SEA

Kuhlungsborn

Heiligendamm

Hinter Bollhagen

Heiligendamm

Rostock

Borgerende

Surveillance cameras and motion detectors

Height: 2.5m

Vorder Bollhagen

Bad Doberan

Air space closed

1km

0.6 miles

SECURITY FENCE

Length: 12km

Demonstrations banned within 2km of fence

Sniffer dogs can track possible violent protesters via police database of human scents collected in advance from selected targets

