

The plight of child labour in agriculture

Agriculture accounts for a staggering 69% of the world's working children. An estimated 132 million girls and boys aged between 5-14 work on farms and plantations in one of the most dangerous forms of work for children and adults alike

WORKING CHILDREN

Total: 190.7 million

(5-14 age group, 2004)

(By sector, 2004)

Services 22%

Industry 9%

