

London hosts start of Tour de France

For the first time in its 100-year history the world's biggest annual sporting event will start in London. Britain will host two stages – a prologue in its capital, and the first stage, starting in London and ending in Canterbury

PROLOGUE, July 7 Length: 7.9km

Start: Westminster London Erith Dartford

▲ Climb ◆ Sprint

STAGE ONE, July 8 Length: 203km

