

Japan earthquake

A powerful 6.8-magnitude earthquake has struck central Japan, killing seven people, flattening buildings and sparking a fire and water leak at the world's biggest nuclear power plant

