

Ozone-harming chemicals in spotlight

Ministers from 191 countries are being pressed to accelerate the phase-out of HCFCs – the last major ozone-destroying chemical in widespread use. The Montreal Protocol currently calls for HCFC use to end by 2030 in industrialized countries and by 2040 in developing countries

Source: World Meteorological Organisation

© GRAPHIC NEWS