

Benazir Bhutto under house arrest

Pakistani police have surrounded the Islamabad home of opposition leader Benazir Bhutto ahead of her planned rally against President General Pervez Musharraf's emergency rule. Her Pakistan People's Party – the country's largest political party – claims police have arrested 5,000 of its supporters

PROTESTS PLANNED

Nov 9, Rawalpindi:

Mass rally

Nov 13: "Long march"

from Lahore to Islamabad

BHUTTO'S DEMANDS

- ▶ State of emergency to be called off and constitution restored
- ▶ President Musharraf to stand down as head of army
- ▶ Polls to be held by mid-January
- ▶ Release of all lawyers, judges and activists arrested recently

PUNJAB:

Hundreds of Bhutto supporters detained

Pictures: Associated Press © GRAPHIC NEWS