

Iraq – triple car bomb

Three car bombs exploded almost simultaneously in the southern Iraqi city of Amara, killing at least 30 people and injuring 45 others.

Amara is the capital of Maysan province, a mainly Shia area which was handed back from British to Iraqi security control in April

 Provinces under Iraqi control

