

Turkish soldiers cross into Iraq

Around 300 Turkish troops have crossed into northern Iraq in a raid against Kurdish rebels. It is the first major deployment in Iraq since the Turkish cabinet backed a move to hunt PKK rebels based in the region

