New Zealand quake A strong earthquake off New Zealand's east coast rocked much of the mainland on Thursday, causing damage in the coastal city of Gisborne. The quake was centred 40 kilometres below the sea bed AUSTRALIA 200 miles 320km NFW ZEALAND Auckland Gisborne (Pacific Tasman Ocean Sea NORTH ISLAND 8:55pm local time: Magnitude 6.8 Wellington earthquake beneath

Hikurangi trench

© GRAPHIC NEWS

Source: GNS