

East Timor's top leaders attacked

East Timor President Jose Ramos-Horta (left) is in a serious condition after he was shot in coordinated assassination attempts against the nation's top leaders. Gunmen, loyal to fugitive rebel leader Alfredo Reinado, also attacked Prime Minister Xanana Gusmao (right), but he was not hurt

Dili, 7.00am: President Ramos Horta shot in stomach at his home. Major Reinado killed by security guards

Balibar, 7.30am: Gusmao's motorcade ambushed

EAST TIMOR

Oecussi enclave

Australian peacekeepers: Current 800-strong force to be boosted to 1,000, with extra soldiers and Australian Federal Police.