

Ukraine threat to cut Europe's gas

Ukraine has warned that if Russia's state-controlled energy giant Gazprom further cuts its gas supplies, it could begin diverting shipments intended for Europe. Gazprom supplies around a third of Western Europe's gas imports, of which 80% is supplied through pipelines that cross Ukraine

