

Wednesday, June 18

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1997: Princess Diana visited Mother Teresa at her order's home in the Bronx, New York. Three months later both women, iconic figures of the 20th century, would be dead

1583: The first life insurance policy was issued in London

1953: Egypt was proclaimed a Republic with General Nguib as its first President

1975: Prince Feisal Musaid of Saudi Arabia was publicly beheaded for the assassination in March of King Feisal

2007: Nine U.S. firefighters died when a roof collapsed in a furniture warehouse blaze in South Carolina

Picture: Getty Images

© GRAPHIC NEWS