

One medal short of 104-year cycling record

Bradley McGee – Australia's leading hope for an individual pursuit medal in Beijing – could equal the record set by American Burton Downing for most Olympic medals in track cycling. At the St Louis Games in 1904 Downing won six medals: two gold, three silver, and a bronze

Bradley McGee's Olympic medal haul

2004	Athens	Team Pursuit	Gold
2004	Athens	4km Individual Pursuit	Silver
2000	Sydney	4km Individual Pursuit	Bronze
1996	Atlanta	4km Individual Pursuit	Bronze
1996	Atlanta	Team Pursuit	Bronze

Britain's Bradley Wiggins beat McGee to Individual Pursuit gold in 2004, and with four Olympic medals to his name will also be challenging for honours in Beijing