

Monday, July 14

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1918: Eminent film director Ingmar Bergman, who died last year, was born in Uppsala, Sweden

1867: Explosives manufacturer Alfred Nobel first demonstrated his new invention, which he called dynamite

1958: King Faisal of Iraq, his entire household and his prime minister were assassinated in an army coup

1999: The European Union voted to end the three-year ban on British beef exports caused by the BSE crisis

2007: The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Los Angeles settled sexual abuse claims against its clergy at a cost of $660 million

Picture: Associated Press © GRAPHIC NEWS