

Russia reigns in synchronised swimming

World Champions Russia have dominated the synchronised swimming Team event in recent years with their last major defeat dating back to the 1996 Olympics. Russia has also dominated the Duet event, winning all tournaments except for the 2001 World Championships

Anastasia Davydova
and Anastasia
Ermakova

BEST RESULTS BY RUSSIAN TEAMS SINCE 1997

DUET EVENT	Olympic Games	World Ch'ships	European Ch'ships
A. Davydova A. Ermakova	Gold (2004)	Gold (2003, 05, 07) Silver (2001)	Gold (2002, 04, 06)
O. Brusnikina M. Kisseleva	Gold (2000)	—	Gold (1997, 99, 2000)
O. Brusnikina O. Sedakova	—	Gold (1998)	—
TEAM EVENT
Russia	Gold (2000, 2004)	Gold (1998, 2001, 03, 05, 07)	Gold (1997, 99, 2000, 02, 04, 06)

Duet: Technical (2 mins 20 secs)
Free routine (4 mins)

Team: Technical (2 mins 50s)
Free routine (5 mins)

National Aquatics Centre

Medal events

AUG

18

19

20

21

22

23

