

Recent attacks in Turkey

Bombs which killed 16 people and wounded around 150 in Istanbul late on Sunday have been blamed on the separatist group, the Kurdistan Workers' Party or PKK. Rebels belonging to the PKK have been fighting for self-rule in south-eastern Turkey since 1984

Kurdish-inhabited areas

■ Jul 27: Bombs kill 16 in Istanbul

■ Jul 9: Three police officers and three gunmen killed in attack outside U.S. consulate in Istanbul

■ Jan 3: Six people killed and more than 60 wounded in car bomb attack in city of Diyarbakir