

UN nuclear watchdog approves India N-plan

India's plan to separate its civil and military nuclear programmes and put declared civil facilities under international safeguards has gained the approval of the United Nations' International Atomic Energy Agency

MAIN CIVILIAN NUCLEAR FACILITIES

Existing, under construction or planned

Subject to safeguards

Power reactors
Research reactors

MILITARY NUCLEAR FACILITIES

Related to weapons production

To remain off-limits

NAVAL REACTOR PROGRAMME

Includes unknown number of nuclear submarine reactors

Subject to safeguards

PAKISTAN

New Delhi

CHINA

NEPAL

BHUTAN

Narora (2)

Rajasthan (8)

Kakrapar (2)

500km

310 miles

Tarapur (4)

Trombay (5)

Plutonium Production – includes Cirus reactor, supplied by Canada in 1950s, pledged to peaceful use

Mysore

Highly enriched uranium production

Mysore Gas centrifuge plant

Kundankulam (2)

Kaiga (6)

Madras (2)

Kalpakkam (2)
Breeder reactors
Kalpakkam

Kalpakkam
Prototype naval reactor

SRI LANKA

Vishakhapatnam

BANGLADESH

MYANMAR (BURMA)

INDIAN OCEAN

