

Wednesday, September 10

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2007: Former Pakistani Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif was deported within hours of returning to Pakistan after seven years in exile

1855: German archaeologist Robert Koldewey, who revealed the biblical site of Babylon to be a historical reality, was born

1921: The world's first motorway opened in Berlin, Germany

1974: Portugal recognised the independence of Guinea-Bissau

2007: Dame Anita Roddick, founder of ethical cosmetics firm The Body Shop, died at the age of 64 after suffering a major brain haemorrhage