ON THIS DAY

▲ 2007: The first run on a British bank in over a century was triggered following revelations that Northern Rock had sought a rescue injection of funds from the Bank of England

1321: Dante Alighieri, Italy's greatest poet and one of the pre-eminent writers in Western civilization, died

1752: Britain and its colonies adopted the Gregorian calendar

1959: The Soviet Union's Lunik II became the first spacecraft to land on the moon

1982: Lebanese president-elect Bashir Gemayel was assassinated in a bomb blast in East Beirut

Picture: Getty Images   © GRAPHIC NEWS