

Czech train crash

At least 10 people have been killed and over 100 injured in a high-speed train crash in the eastern Czech Republic

Studenka, 10.30am:
EuroCity express
travelling at 140km/h
from Krakow to Prague
hits collapsed bridge

