

Plan to bridge the Red Sea

Osama Bin Laden's half-brother, Tarek Bin Laden, is planning to build a bridge across the Mandab Strait on the Red Sea. The 28.5km bridge – one of the longest in the world – would link Djibouti to Yemen, creating a man-made link between the Middle East and Africa

