

Tuesday, October 14

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1066: King Harold II of England was defeated and killed by the troops of Duke William of Normandy at the Battle of Hastings

1854: The world's first baby show was held at Springfield, Ohio

1888: Writer Katherine Mansfield was born in Wellington, New Zealand

1999: African statesman Julius Nyerere, former president of Tanzania, died in London aged 77

2007: The process of moving the 2,500-year-old marble sculptures from the Acropolis of Athens to an ultra-modern museum at the foot of the hilltop citadel began in Greece