

Iceland in meltdown

Iceland's government has accepted a $5.4 billion loan from Russia to bail out its banks, drawing up sweeping powers to nationalise them and sack executives over fears the nation could fall into bankruptcy

Euro-Krona
exchange

Iceland
all-share index

