

Tuesday, November 4

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2007: Visitors to the tomb of Tutankhamun saw the face of the young pharaoh for the first time after his mummy went on display in a climate-controlled glass case

1307: The Swiss Confederation declared itself independent of Austria

1879: The first cash register was patented by James J. Ritty of Dayton, Ohio

1988: Indian paratroopers crushed an attempted coup by foreign mercenaries in the Maldives

1999: Cricket mourned the death from cancer of West Indian fast bowler Malcolm Marshall at only 41