

Friday, November 28

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2007: A Faberge egg made in 1902 for the Rothschild banking family sold at auction in London for a world record £8.9m ($18.5m)

1820: German socialist Friedrich Engels, a key associate of Karl Marx, was born

1916: A German aircraft made the first enemy air raid on London

1950: An estimated 200,000 Chinese troops poured over the River Yalu as China entered the Korean War

2007: Pakistan's General Pervez Musharraf stepped down as army chief, fulfilling a key demand of his political rivals