

Taliban targets Afghan supply lines

Taliban attacks along the Peshawar-Torkham highway in northwest Pakistan threaten to disrupt supplies to the 65,000 NATO and U.S.-led forces in Afghanistan. Three quarters of western military supplies in Afghanistan come by road through the vulnerable Khyber Pass

