

Annular eclipse of the sun over Indian Ocean

The first solar eclipse of 2009 occurs over the Indian Ocean and western Indonesia on January 26. It is annular, with the moon not appearing large enough to fully cover the sun's disk

During annular eclipse, moon is further away from Earth than in total eclipse so outer edge of sun (annulus) is seen

ECLIPSE STAGES

