

Top five recipients of TARP funds

U.S. President Obama has ordered $500,000 pay caps plus restricted stock awards for executives of companies that take federal bailout money in future. The restriction will not apply to banks and automakers that have already received help under the Troubled Asset Relief Programme (TARP)

Vikram Pandit

Kenneth D. Lewis

Edward Liddy

Jamie Dimon

John Stumpf

CEO pay in 2007 (salary, stock, bonus, pension and other remuneration)

$574,000

$24.8m

$14.3m

$27.8m

$12.6m

Losses and writedowns (since subprime mortgage crisis began in 2007)

$85.4bn

$40.2bn

$60.9bn

$29.5bn

$17.3bn

TARP funds allocated from $700 billion federal bailout

$50bn

$45bn

$40bn

$25bn

$25bn