

Sunday, March 22

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1888: The English Football League was founded in London

1599: Sir Anthony Van Dyck, after Rubens probably the most prominent Flemish artist of the Baroque period, was born

1895: In Paris, brothers Auguste and Louis Lumiere gave the first demonstration of motion pictures using celluloid film

1945: The Arab League was formed in Cairo by Egypt, Iraq, Jordan, Lebanon, and Syria

2007: An arms depot exploded in Maputo, Mozambique, killing at least 93 people