Iditarod – Alaska's ultimate test of endurance

The Iditarod lays claim to being the world's toughest sled dog race a gruelling 1,820km-long trek pitting man and animal against some of Alaska's harshest terrain - all for a prize of $69,000 and a brand new pickup truck Safety White Mountain * Checkpoint Elim Koyuk Course record Road transfer 8 days, 22hs Mandatory stops: Shaktoolik Golovin 46m, 2s Finish One 24-hour stop (2002)Unalakleet Nome Kaltag 🛨 * 8-hour stop at one of five checkpoints Eagle Island * on Yukon River * Grayling * 8-hour stop Ophir Takotna * Anvik Nikolai Finger McGrath Lake * Shageluk. Rohn Iditarod Skwentna Rainy Pass Yentna Restart Campbell Airstrip Mar 8 Willow Start: Mar 7 Anchorage Each team is composed of 12-16 dogs and must cross the finish line with at least six