

Six cricketers hurt in Pakistan attack

Six members of the Sri Lankan cricket team, including Thilan Samaraweera and Tharanga Paranavitana, were injured in a terrorist attack on the team bus in the Pakistani city of Lahore. Six policemen and two civilians were killed in the attack by 12 masked gunmen

Samaraweera became only the seventh batsman in Test cricket to notch a double hundred in consecutive matches on Monday, scoring 214 after a 231 in the drawn first Test

Picture: Getty Images
© GRAPHIC NEWS