

President Obama visits Europe

In his first trip to Europe since taking office, U.S. President Barack Obama plans to cement trans-Atlantic ties, seek help in Afghanistan, and coordinate strategies on the global economic downturn

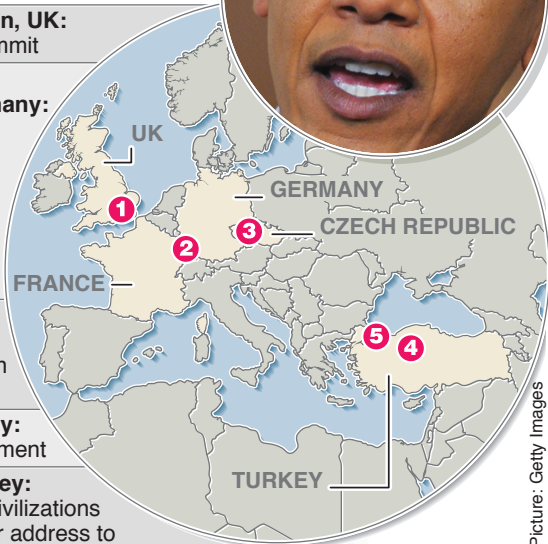

1 Mar 31-Apr 2, London, UK:
Obama attends G-20 summit

2 Apr 3-4, Strasbourg, France, and Kehl, Germany:
Attends NATO's 60th anniversary summit.
Meets separately with French President Nicolas Sarkozy and German Chancellor Angela Merkel

3 Apr 5, Prague, Czech Republic:
Meets heads of European Union member states

4 Apr 6, Ankara, Turkey:
Addresses Turkish parliament

5 Apr 7, Istanbul, Turkey:
Attends UN Alliance of Civilizations
— could use this to deliver address to Muslim world pledged during presidential campaign

Picture: Getty Images

© GRAPHIC NEWS