

Security tight ahead of NATO summit

Some 25,000 French and German police are in position around three cities on either side of the Rhine before NATO's 60th anniversary summit involving 26 world leaders. Around 40,000 protesters are expected to flock to the area

Baden-Baden: Working dinner at Kurhaus casino

European Parliament

Rohan Palace:
U.S. President Barack Obama meets French President Nicolas Sarkozy

Strasbourg Cathedral:
Visit by First Ladies Michelle Obama and Carla Bruni-Sarkozy

Europe bridge:
Border crossing between Germany and France

Cost of security operation: $146m

Source: NATO Picture: Getty

© GRAPHIC NEWS