

Moldova election protests

Moldovan riot police have detained 193 people in the capital Chisinau after demonstrators protesting against the election victory of President Vladimir Voronin's Communist Party stormed the president's office and Parliament

