

Global alerts over Mexico swine flu outbreak

Mexico's President Felipe Calderon has closed Mexico City schools, shut public events and declared emergency powers to order quarantines to fight the outbreak of swine flu which has killed more than 100 people

