

Surge in piracy off Horn of Africa

Hijacking foreign ships for ransom is Somalia's most profitable industry, with ransom payments estimated at up to US$80 million in 2008.

Pirates are currently holding at least 19 ships and more than 250 sailors

