

Sunday, June 28

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2007: Wildfires swept through Greece after days of record high temperatures that caused heatstroke deaths and extensive power cuts

1629: The Peace of Alais ended the Huguenot revolt in France

1950: North Korean troops captured the South Korean capital, Seoul

1988: Mike Tyson retained boxing's world heavyweight crown with a 91-second demolition of Michael Spinks

2008: Indian-administered Kashmir revoked a decision to transfer forested land to an important Hindu shrine following days of protests by the area's Muslim majority