

Ins and outs of Formula One budget cap

The FIA's proposed budget cap of $59m is designed to attract new entrants to motorsport's elite competition and prevent others following Honda out of Formula One due to financial difficulties. Its critics – some of the sport's top teams – claim it would create a two tier championship and devalue F1

2008 TEAM BUDGETS

◆ $59 million proposed budget cap

$ millions

ARRIVALS...

Teams expressing interest in entering 2010 World Championship

Lola	F1 (1962-97), Le Mans, A1GP
U.S. Grand Prix Engineering	–
Wirth Research	ALMS
Epsilon Euskadi	Formula Renault
Ray Mallock Ltd	Chevrolet WTCC
Campos Racing	F3
iSport	GP2
Formtech	Acquired Super Aguri
Litespeed	F3
Prodrive	WRC

DEPARTURES?

Ferrari – in every championship since 1950 – now threatening to quit F1 next season

1951: Ferrari's first F1 winner, J. F. Gonzalez at British GP

RENAULT

TOYOTA

Red Bull

May 29 Deadline for entries to 2010 F1 World Championship. Maximum of 13 teams – current teams must confirm entry or could lose place