

Paris Air Show celebrates centenary

The world's largest airshow celebrates a century of aerospace innovation, with over 350,000 visitors expected to attend and up to 150 aircraft on display at Le Bourget airfield outside Paris

▼ SUKHOI SUPERJET 100
Russia's new regional airliner will make full international debut

Superjet 100-95

Length 29.9m

Wingspan 27.8m

Cruising speed 830km/h

Passengers 98

Cost $28m

VINTAGE AIRCRAFT

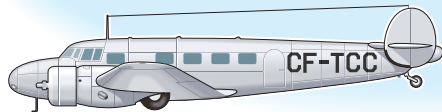

30 will take part in display featuring key periods of aviation history, including:

▲ Early years: Bleriot XI

▼ First World War
Fokker Dr.I

▲ 1920s and 30s: Lockheed L-10 Electra

▲ Second World War
Supermarine
Spitfire

◀ 1950s and 60s
Dassault Mirage III