

Iran braces for more protests

Supporters of defeated presidential candidate Mirhossein Mousavi aim to keep up pressure with new protests over the disputed election results. The planned rallies come after security forces reportedly again raided university dormitories in several Iranian cities

Jun 14, Tehran

University: Student dormitories attacked by members of Basij – religious militia linked to Revolutionary Guard. Five students reported shot dead, 15 critically injured

Jun 16, Vanak Square: Mousavi's supporters demonstrate

Jun 16, Vali Asr Square: Thousands of President Ahmadinejad's supporters stage counter-rally

Jun 15, near Azidi Square: Eight people killed after crowd attacks compound used by Basij militia