

Tuesday, July 21

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2008: Former Bosnian Serb leader Radovan Karadzic, one of the world's most wanted men, was arrested in Serbia after 12 years on the run

1897: The Tate Gallery was opened in London on the site of a former jail

1944: U.S. forces liberated the Pacific island of Guam, captured by the Japanese in December 1941

1974: Greece accepted a UN resolution on a ceasefire in Cyprus a day after the invasion by Turkish forces

2008: Russia and China signed a pact demarcating their 4,300km border, after 40 years of negotiations