

Year One

Director: Harold Ramis

Starring: Jack Black,
Michael Cera, June Raphael

Comedy set in biblical times with Zed (Black) and Oh (Cera) as facetious, jabbering cavemen, banished by their primitive hunter-gatherer tribe.

During an epic journey through Mesopotamia, they meet several Old Testament characters: Adam and Eve, Cain and Abel, and a neurotic Abraham.

While director Ramis's focus is on clever visual and cultural jokes, the Biblical satire is definitely going to offend some people

A Columbia Pictures release.
