AFGHANISTAN
Kabul
PAKISTAN
Helmand Province
June 30, Paktia Province: U.S. soldier, Private Bowe R. Bergdahl, captured by Taliban while on foot patrol
Taliban controlled
Taliban influence
Coalition operations
Forward operating bases
Helmand Rod
ORUZGAN
AFGHANISTAN
Tarin Kot
Arghandab Rod
Lurah Rod
Qalat
Musa Qala
Edinburgh
Juno
Tombstone
Price
Sangin
Robinson
Gereshk
Delaram
Marine base
Camp Leatherneck
HQ for 10,000 U.S. Marines
Camp Bastion
Nad Ali
Marjah
Nawa
Delhi
Garmsir
NIMRUZ
Maywand
Close-air-support base
Kandahar
HQ for Canadian task force of 2,800 troops and 11,000 American reinforcements
Spin Boldak
PAKISTAN
Lashkar Gar
HQ for 9,150 British troops, supported by Canadians and Dutch
Khanishin
HELMAND
KANDAHAR
Quetta
Barham Shah
BALOCHISTAN
Dalbandin
Forward refueling base for U.S. Special Forces helicopters
25 miles
40km
1. July 9, Nad Ali, Sang: Eight British soldiers killed in 24 hours, seven by Improvised Explosive Devices (IEDs)
2. July 14, Sangin: Helicopter shot down killing six civilian contractors
3. July 16, Kandahar: Canadian serviceman killed
4. July 17, Gereshk: British soldier killed by IED while on foot patrol
5. Nawa: Estimated 300 to 600 Taliban flee U.S. Marine offensive
6. Khanishin: U.S. Marines capture strategic fort from Taliban
7. July 19, Kandahar: Helicopter crash kills 16 civilian contractors
8. July 20, Sangin: British soldier killed by IED brings total British fatalities since start of month to 17
© GRAPHIC NEWS