

European car sales show slight recovery

New car sales across Western Europe rose by 4.6% in June, to 1,382,189 units, with the largest rises in countries with national scrappage schemes

Total car sales (Jan-Jun)

2009 6,980,700

2008 7,736,100

Change DOWN 9.8%

Western European sales

2009: 1,484,000

2008: 1,496,900

Change -0.9%

PSA Group

2009: 909,500

2008: 1,023,800

Change -11.2%

2009: 721,800

2008: 779,200

Change -7.4%

2009: 641,800

2008: 648,300

Change -1.0%

2009: 636,100

2008: 758,500

Change -16.1%

RENAULT

2009: 586,500

2008: 654,500

Change -10.4%

TOYOTA

2009: 366,400

2008: 430,600

Change -14.9%

2009: 349,300

2008: 449,700

Change -22.3%

HYUNDAI

2009: 254,400

2008: 240,500

Change +5.8%

2009: 150,400

2008: 185,000

Change -18.7%

2009: 122,600

2008: 139,400

Change -12.1%

SUZUKI

2009: 117,200

2008: 114,900

Change +2.0%

mazda

2009: 103,200

2008: 132,200

Change -21.9%

Others 230,600

Source: European Automobile Manufacturers' Association
© GRAPHIC NEWS